

Investors choose Asia

LONDON: Asia has overtaken Continental Europe as the top investment choice for investors living outside their country of origin, according to a survey of 350 expatriate investors conducted by the online broker Internaxx.

The survey showed that 39 percent had investments in Asia, up from 33 percent a year ago, while 37 percent invested in Europe. (Reuters)